N.B. The time signature changes at “Qui tollis.” A Stanford professor of early music explains why:

Technically it is tempus imperfectum diminutum shifting to tempus imperfectum [integer valoris], i.e., cut C and C. You find this occasionally in Masses of Victoria, and I think other Masses of Guerrero, and possibly Morales. It comes at a point in the GLORIA or CREDO where there could be a slightly slower tempo. In my opinion, it is an occasional mensural indication of a tempo change that would be made even without it. Thus, very likely at “Quoniam tu solus sanctus” the original tempo would be resumed. I have long resisted such tempo changes, but the more I do these pieces, the more I think it is the most appropriate interpretation. In the Josquin era, it seems to me that more strict tempos should be maintained, but by the second half of the sixteenth century, there is acknowledged expressive use of tempo variation, and this is the most likely spot in the Gloria. Literal Translation

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. And in one Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, the only-begotten, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one substance with the Father, through whom all things were made. Who for us men and for our salvation, came down from heaven, and was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and Mary the Virgin, and became man. He was crucified for us under Pontius Pilate, and suffered and was buried. And He rose again on the third day, according to the scriptures. And He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. And He will come again with glory, to judge the living and the dead, and of His kingdom there will be no end. And in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, and Giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who together with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified. Who spoke through the prophets. In one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I profess one baptism for the remission of sins. I expect the resurrection of the dead; and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Jam Désinant Suspíria

2018 Christmas Carol arr. by Peter Lejeune

* Rehearsal Videos for each individual voice: CCWATERSHED.ORG/POLYPHONY

ABOUT THE COMPOSER :

Peter Lejeune (b. 1991) has contributed marvelous original hymn tunes to the St. Jean de Brébeuf Hymnal, which will be released in 2018. Corpus Christi Watershed obtained permission (July 2018) to add English lyrics alongside the Latin words he set for this famous Christmas carol. Mr. Lejeune can be reached through the offices of the John Paul II Institute for Liturgical Renewal (liturgical.institute@gmail.com).

ABOUT THE TEXT :

The English translation is based on work of Alfred Thomas Braye (d. 1928), who converted from Anglicanism to the Catholic Church in 1868. The Latin text was written by Father Charles Coffin (d. 1749).

1. Jam désinant suspíria; Aúdivit ex alto Deus: Caeli patéscunt; en adest Promíssa pax mortálibus.	Let our aspirations now cease; God from on high has heard us; The heavens are open, behold: mortals now have the promised peace.	5. Tu-ne ille, Christe, Filius Et splendor aetérni Patris? Illum-ne cerno qui levi Orbem pugillo sústinet?	Are not you, Christ, the Son of God and the splendor of the eternal Father? Do I not see Him who rules the world with a gentle stroke?
2. Profúnda noctis ótia Caeléstis abrúmpit chorus; Natúmque festo cármine Annúntiat terris Deum.	The heavenly chorus breaks the deep stillness of the night. It announces in festive song that God is born on the earth.	6. Sic est: verénda queis lates, Fides penétrat núbila: Agnóscó quem proni vident, Tremunt, adórant Ángeli.	So it is: You are hidden to those whom faith fills with veneration. I, too, acknowledge you whom prostrate angels see, tremble at, and adore.
3. Specum sacrátam pérvigil Dum turba pastórum subit, Eámus, et castis pia Cunis ferámus óscula.	While the group of shepherds keep watch and enter the hallowed cave, let us go and bring loving kisses to the chaste crib.	7. Agis magístrum vel tacens: Ex hac cathédra nos doces Vitáre quod carni placet, Caro quod horret pépeti.	Even when silent you act as teacher: You teach us from this seat To avoid what pleases the flesh To endure what the flesh abhors.
4. At quale nobis pánditur Intrántibus spectáculum! Praesépe, foenum, fásciae, Parens inops, infans puer.	What a wondrous sight is presented to us as we enter! The crib, the hay, the swaddling clothes, the poor parent, the infant boy.	8. Castos amóres nútrens, Sanans tuméntes spíritus, Divíne, nostris, ó Puer, Praecórdiis innáscere.	Nourishing chaste love, Healing prideful spirits O Divine Child, Be surrounded by our praises.

Singers should memorize this Refrain, to avoid excessive page turns :

Hark! The Herald Angels Sing 803

Tune: MENDELSSOHN

1. Hark! The her-ald an-gels sing,—"Glo-ry to the new-born King;
2. Christ, by high-est Heav'n a-dored; Christ the ev-er-last-ing Lord;
3. Hail the heav'n-ly Prince of Peace! Hail the Sun of Right-eous-ness!
4. Come, De-sire of na-tions, come, Fix in us Thy hum-ble home;

1. Peace on earth, and mer-cy mild, God and sin-ners rec-on-ciled!"
2. Late in time, be-hold Him come, Off-spring of the vir-gin's womb.
3. Light and life to all He brings, Ris'n with heal-ing in His wings.
4. Rise, the wom-an's con-qu'ring Seed, Bruise in us the ser-pent's head.

1. Joy-ful, all ye na-tions rise,— Join the tri-umph of the skies;
2. Veiled in flesh the God-head see;— Hail th'in-car-nate De-i-ty,—
3. Mild He lays His glo-ry by,— Born that man no more may die.—
4. Now dis-play Thy sav-ing pow'r, Ru-ined na-ture now re-store;

1. With th'an-gel-ic host pro-claim, "Christ is—born in Beth-le-hem!"
2. Pleased as man with man to dwell, Je-sus—our Em-ma-nu-el.
3. Born to raise the sons of earth, Born to—give them sec-ond birth.
4. Now in mys-tic un-ion join Thine to—ours, and ours to Thine.

Hark! the her-ald an-gels sing, "Glo-ry— to the new-born King!"
